

JOBACTIVE

AGE GROUP 15 AND ABOVE | FEDERAL FUNDING

jobactive is the Australian Government's way to get more Australians into work. It connects job seekers with employers and is delivered by a network of jobactive providers.

ELIGIBILITY

Job seekers who receive income support payments, such as Newstart Allowance, Youth Allowance (other), or Parenting Payment, and have mutual obligation requirements will generally receive the full range of jobactive services.

Some people can also get help under jobactive as a volunteer job seeker and the type of support they receive will depend on their circumstances. Job seekers may be eligible to volunteer for jobactive services if they:

- are not on income support, or
- are on income support and have no mutual obligation requirements
- are not working or studying full time
- have the right to work in Australia

COMMITMENT REQUIRED

To ensure job seekers remain active and engaged while looking for work, they may need to meet certain requirements to keep receiving income support. These are called mutual obligation requirements. →

COMMITMENT CONT'

If a job seeker has mutual obligation requirements, they will generally need to:

- enter into a Job Plan that will outline what they will do to become more job ready and satisfy their mutual obligation requirements
- look for up to 20 jobs each month, with jobactive providers able to tailor this requirement to a job seeker's individual circumstances and local labour market conditions
- complete Work for the Dole or another suitable activity (such as part-time work, part-time study in an eligible course, participation in accredited language, literacy and numeracy training or voluntary work) for six months each year

A job seeker's mutual obligation requirements vary according to their age and other personal circumstances.
